City of Canton to run citywide tornado drill for city employees at 9:50 AM on Wednesday, March 6, 2013

CANTON, Ohio –

This week is both National Severe Weather Preparedness Week and Ohio's Spring Severe Weather Awareness Week. Accordingly, the City of Canton will run a citywide tornado drill for city employees at 9:50 AM on Wednesday, March 6, 2013. Canton residents and individuals working in the city should take note that the city's tornado siren will sound at the beginning of the drill. The State of Ohio will be running a statewide tornado drill at the same time.
