Please Note The BAN-Litter program is designed to be a PARTNERSHIP between the City and various neighborhood organizations. By definition this indicates a degree of participation by the individuals living in the neighborhoods and the organization requesting a BAN-Litter date. Starting with the 2015 season, any scheduled BAN-Litter event that has no representatives of the neighborhood attending and participating in the clean-up will result in the event being cancelled. In addition, the requesting organization will be disqualified from participation for the following year.
