City of Canton Department of Engineering
Street Tree Selections

Cleveland Select Pear
Pyrus calleryana 'Cleveland Select'

Skyline Honeylocust
Gleditsia tricanthos var. inermis 'Skyline'

Schubert Canadian Cherry
Prunus virginiana 'Schubert'

Ivory Silk Tree Lilac
Syringa reticulata 'Ivory Silk'

Sun Valley Red Maple
Acer rubrum 'Sun Valley'

Princeton Sentry Ginkgo
Ginkgo biloba 'Princeton Sentry'

American Hornbeam
Carpinus caroliniana

Red Rage Tupelo
Nyssa sylvatica 'Red Rage'

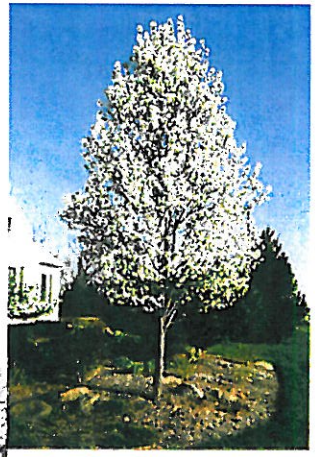
Frontier Elm
Ulmus (carpinifolia x parvifolia) 'Frontier'

Prepared by:

RICE'S nursery & landscaping
1651 55th Street NE - Canton, OH 44721 - (330) 499-9857

Cleveland Select Pear

Pyrus calleryana 'Cleveland Select'



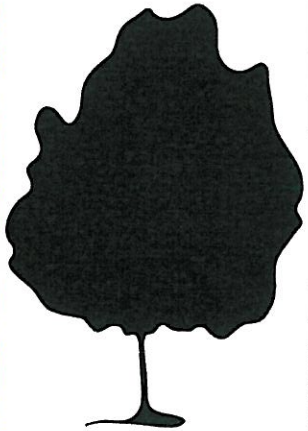
Size: 35' ht. x 15' wd.
Shape: upright, narrowly pyramidal
Flowers: white, in early spring
Fall Color: reddish

Description: Medium sized, narrow ornamental tree with glossy dark green leaves. This tree is considered tolerant and can grow in a variety of conditions.

photos courtesy of Bear Creek and Stadler Nurseries

Skyline Honeylocust

Gleditsia tricanthos var. inermis 'Skyline'



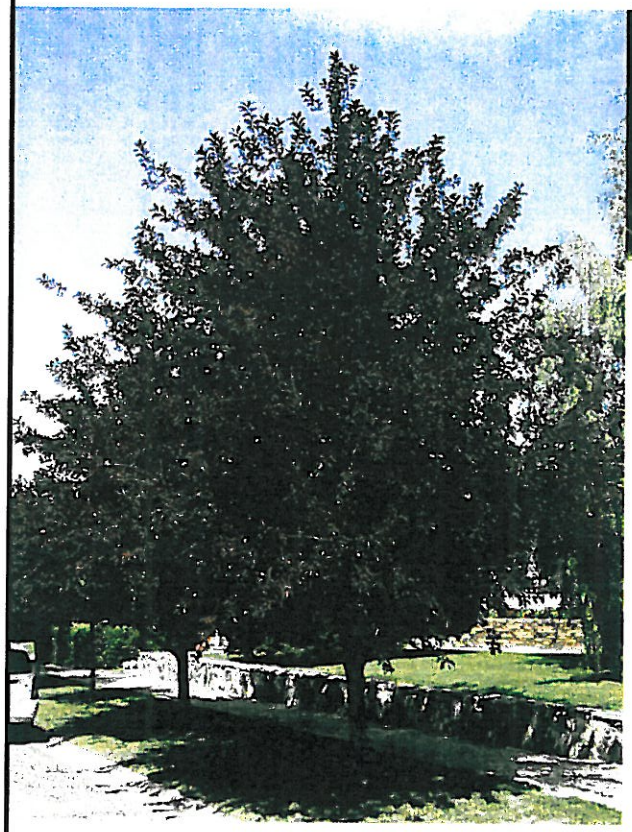
Size: 45' ht. x 35' wd.
Shape: pyramidal
Flowers: yellow, inconspicuous
Fall Color: golden yellow

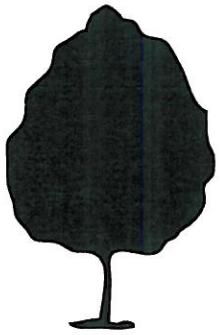
Description: Thornless, almost seedless tree casts light shade. This tree has tiny leaves and requires little fall cleanup. Does well in poor soil conditions.

photos courtesy of Halka Nursery and Ohio DNR

Schubert Canadian Cherry

Prunus virginiana 'Schubert'





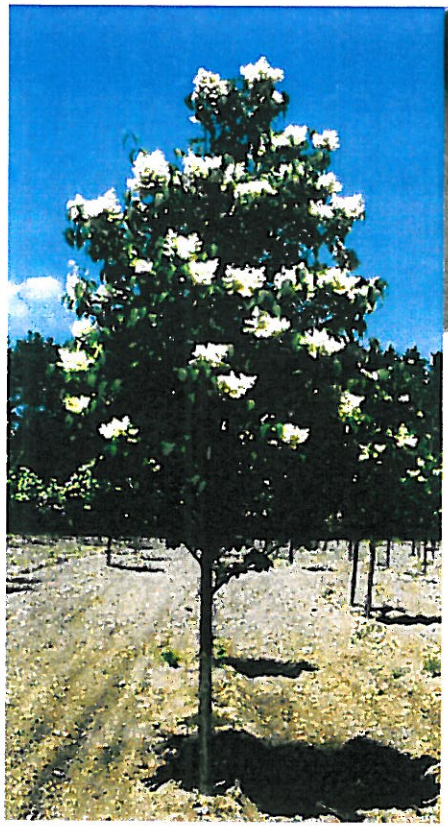
Size: 25' ht. x 18' wd.
Shape: upright rounded
Flowers: white, mid spring
Foliage: emerge green, turn burgundy in summer

Description: Small ornamental tree provides color interest. This tree is a selection of a native North American species and is tolerant of urban soil conditions. Very hardy.

photos courtesy of UI Plants and Learn2Grow

Ivory Silk Tree Lilac

Syringa reticulata 'Ivory Silk'



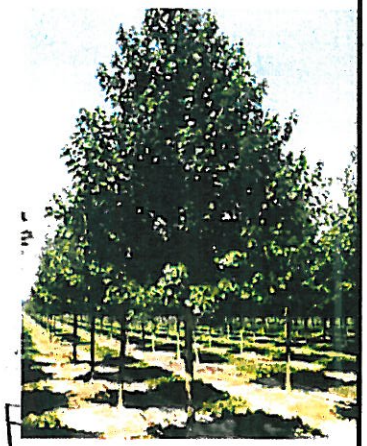
Size: 20' ht. x 15' wd.
Shape: upright rounded
Flowers: white, early summer
Fall Color: yellow to rusty red

Description: Small tree provides large, showy flowers as its main ornamental feature. The fruit and leaves require little cleanup. Tolerant of a urban soil conditions, salt.

photos courtesy of Willoway and Brisset Nurseries

Sun Valley Red Maple

Acer rubrum 'Sun Valley'



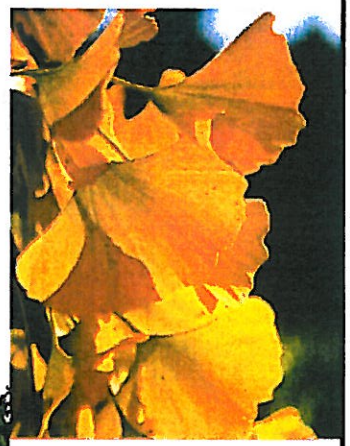
Size: 30' ht. x 20' wd.
Shape: symmetrical oval
Flowers: inconspicuous
Fall color: brilliant red

Description: Seedless shade tree, leaves turn red in mid to late October. This tree is selected from a native North American species and adapts to a variety of soil conditions.

photos courtesy of Green View and Moon Nursery

Princeton Sentry Ginkgo

Ginkgo biloba 'Princeton Sentry'



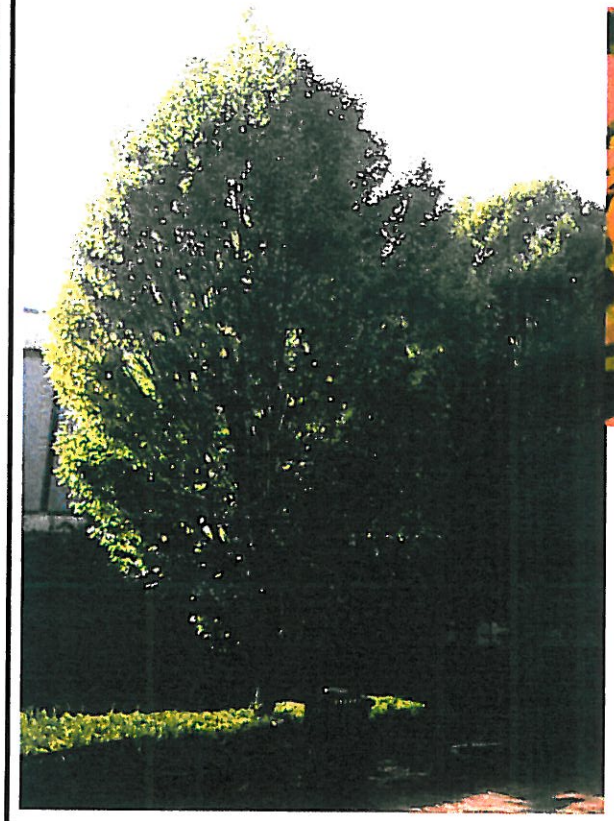
Size: 40' ht. x 15' wd.
Shape: upright
Flowers: green
Fall color: yellow

Description: Seedless male cultivar, leaves are thick and fan shaped, deep green in summer. This tree is tolerant of urban soil conditions, air pollution and heat.

photos courtesy of Missouri Botanical Garden and Greer Gardens

American Hornbeam

Carpinus caroliniana



Size: 35' ht. x 35' wd.
Shape: upright oval
Flowers: inconspicuous
Fall color: yellow, orange, and red

Description: A slow growing, deciduous, small to medium tree native to North America. Tolerates wet sites and does well in shade to full sun.

photos courtesy of State by State Gardening Magazine

Red Rage Tupelo

Nyssa sylvatica 'Red Rage'

Size: 35' ht. x 20' wd.
Shape: broadly pyramidal
Flowers: inconspicuous
Fall color: brilliant red

Description: This tree is a very adaptable specimen for many sites. Its brilliant fall color makes it highly sought after

photos courtesy of Moon Nursery and Daves Garden

Frontier Elm

Ulmus (carpinifolia x parvifolia) 'Frontier'

Size: 25' ht. x 15' wd.
Shape: upright pyramidal
Flowers: inconspicuous
Fall color: purple-red

Description: Seedless hybrid that exhibits high resistance to Dutch elm disease. Tolerant of urban conditions and performs well in diverse locations.

photos courtesy of Hoette Farms and Nursery and The Site Gardener